The remaining number of daily allowance will then be calculated at ordinary rates prescribed in column 1 of the Table at (A) above.

The allowances under this rule shall be admissible only on production of a certificate by the members concerned to the effect that they have not claimed or drawn travelling or daily allowances in respect of the journeys and halts from any other source.

B. MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT

(A)

Travelling Allowance

(1)

In respect of journeys performed by rail, road, air and steamer, a member of Parliament will be entitled to travelling allowance on the same scale as is admissible to him under section 4 of the Salaries and Allowance of Members of Parliament Act, 1954 (

30 of 1954

A member of Parliament will ordinarily travel by rail utilising the free first class rail pass issued to him. He may also travel by air at his discretion. Air travel should not, however, be resorted to as a matter of course and in exercising his discretion, the member should take into account factors like urgency or work, distance to be travelled, time at his disposal, etc., and where two classes of accommodation, i.e., first and economy (tourist) class accommodation are available on the air-lines, a Member of Parliament may travel by first class.

(B)

Daily Allowance

(1)

He shall be entitled for each day of the meeting, daily allowance at the rate of Rs. 51.

(2)

In addition to the daily allowance for the day(s) of the meeting, a member shall also be entitled to full daily allowance for the day preceding and/or the day following the meeting if-he arrives in the forenoon of the day preceding the day of the meeting of an earlier day, or

(i)

(ii)

he departs at 12 noon or in the afternoon of the day following the day of the meeting or on a later day:

Provided that he will be entitled to only half daily allowance for the day preceding or for the day following the meeting if:

(i)

he arrives at 12 noon or in the afternoon of the day of the meeting, and/or

(ii)

he departs in the forenoon of the day following the day of the meeting.

C. MEMBERS OF THE STATE LEGISLATURES

The travelling allowance and daily allowance payable to members of the State Legislatures shall be the same as admissible to them under the rules regulating the travelling allowance and daily allowance payable for attending the meetings of the State Legislature or any committees thereof.

Note. - The travelling and daily allowance shall be admissible only on production of a certificate by the members concerned to the effect that they have not claimed or drawn travelling or daily allowance in respect of the journey and halts from any other source.
