Published vide Notification No. H-1616/12-B-1104-67, dated March 14, 1972

Whereas the State Government is of opinion that it is necessary and expedient so to do for securing the maintenance and increase of supplies and services essential to the life of the community and for securing the equitable distribution and availability of essential commodities at fair prices;

Now, therefore in exercise of the powers under Rule 114 of the Defence of India Rules, 1971, the Governor is pleased to make the following Order:

Short title, extent and commencement.

(1)

This Order may be called the Uttar Pradesh Cold Storage Order, 1972.

(2)

It shall come into force at once.

(3)

It extends to the whole of Uttar Pradesh.

2.

Definitions.

- In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires-

"agricultural produce" includes produce of agriculture, animal husbandry or horticulture, fish, shell fish, and articles of food or drink wholly or partly made from any of them;

(b)

"cold storage" means an enclosed chamber insulated in the prescribed manner mechanically cooled by refrigeration machinery to provide refrigerated condition to agriculture produce stored therein but does not include refrigerated cabinets and chilling plants having capacity of less than 29.3168 cubic metre;

(c)

"cold storage receipt" means a receipt issued by a licensee under this order and includes a duplicate receipt issued under this Order;

(g)

["Licensing Officer" means the Director of Horticulture and Fruit Utilization, Uttar Pradesh and includes any other officer of the Horticulture Department not below the rank of Deputy Director, or an Officer of the Revenue Department not below the rank of Sub-divisional Officer, empowered by the Director of Horticulture in this behalf to exercise some or all of the powers of the Licensing Officer under this Order.]

[Substituted by Cold Storage (Third Amendment) Order, vide Notification No. M-49/12(8)-700 (8)-74, dated 6th June, 1974 and further Substituted by Cold Storage (Fourth Amendment) Order, 1975, published in U.P. Gazette, (Extraordinary), dated 20.3.1975.]

Regulation of storage of food stuffs in cold storage.

(1)

No person shall carry on the business of storing any agricultural produce in a cold storage except under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of a valid licence.

(2)

Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-clause (1) any person carrying on such business from before the commencement of this Order may make an application for licence under this Order within a week from the commencement of this Order, and in relation to any such person-- the provisions of clause 18 and the Schedules shall apply immediately as if he were a licensee; the provisions of sub-clause (1) shall not apply for the said period of one week and the period intervening between the date of his application and its grant or refusal by the Licensing Officer.

(b)

4.

Application for licence.

- Every person desiring to obtain a licence shall make an application in duplicate to the Licensing Officer in Form 'A' together with the fees prescribed therefor in clause 5 and a copy of the blue print of the cold storage building plan.

Fees for licence.

- The fees for a licence shall be--

(i)

rupees fifty for storing food stuffs in a Cold Storage with a capacity up to 141 cubic meter (5,000 c. ft.)

(ii)

rupees seventy-five for storing food stuffs in a Cold Storage having a capacity of above 141 cubic metre.

Licensing Officer to have regard to certain matters in granting or refusing licence.

- In granting or refusing a licence, the Licensing Officer shall have regard to the following matters, namely:

(i)

[* * *]

[Omitted by Notification No. A-2707/XII-C, published in U.P. Gazette, (Extraordinary), dated 27th June, 1972.]

(ii)

refrigeration conditions of the cold storage in which the agricultural produce are proposed to be stored;

(iii)

any other matters which the Licensing Officer may consider necessary for the purpose.

7.

Grant or refusal of licence.

(1)

On receipt of an application for the grant of a licence, the Licensing Officer may, after taking into consideration the matters referred to in clause 6 either grant or refuse a licence.

(2)

Where the application for a licence is refused, the reasons for such refusal shall be recorded in writing and a copy of the same shall be furnished to the applicant, and the fees paid by the applicant along with the application shall be refunded to him.

(3)

Where the application for a licence is not refused, Licensing Officer shall grant the applicant a licence in Form B.

8.

Conditions of Licence.

- Every licence shall be subject to the terms and conditions specified in Schedule I:

Provided that where the licence is with respect to storage of any agricultural produce in any Cold Storage in existence at the commencement of this Order, nothing in paragraph 3 of Part 2 of the Schedule shall apply to such licence.

Cancellation of licence.

- The Licensing Officer may after giving the holder of the licence an opportunity to show cause and after giving him three months' notice, cancel any licence granted to him for any breach of the terms and conditions of the licence or for any contravention of the provisions of this Order.

10.

Period of validity of licence.

- Every licence shall, unless previously cancelled, expire on the 31st day of December next following.

11.

Renewal of licence.

(1)

Every holder of licence desiring to renew the licence shall make an application for renewal in duplicate to the Licensing Officer in Form 'C' together with such fees as are payable under clause 5 of the original grant of the licence, on or before the 31st October.

(2)

On receipt of such application together with such fees, the Licensing Officer may either renew the licence or refuse to renew the licence.

(3)

Where the application for renewal is refused, the reasons for such refusal shall be recorded in writing and copy of the same shall be furnished to the applicant and the fees paid by the applicant along with the application shall be refunded to him.

12.

Power to call for information, etc.

(1)

The Licensing Officer or any other officer authorised by him in writing in this behalf, may with a view to securing compliance with this Order-require any holder of a licence to give any information in his possession with respect to the agricultural produce stored by him in the cold storage;

(b)

enter and search any premises, where the cold storage is installed or run, at any time with a view to satisfying himself that the requirements of this Order are being complied with.

(2)

Every holder of a licence shall be bound to furnish the information so required to the Licensing Officer or such other officer and afford all necessary facilities to the Licensing Officer or the officer for the purpose of exercising his powers under sub-clause (1).

(3)

Subject to the provisions of this clause, the provisions of Sections 102 and 103 of the [Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898)]

[Now see Criminal Procedure Code, 1973.]

relating to search shall so far as may be, apply to searches under this clause.

to maintain such record relating to storage of agricultural produce in a cold storage in such forms as may be specified in the order; to submit to him such returns or statements in such form and containing such information relating to the agricultural produce stored in the cold storage and within such time as may be specified in the order.

14.

Appeal.

- Any person aggrieved by any order of the Licensing Officer made under this order may prefer an appeal to the State Government within thirty days of the date of communication of such order and the decision of the State Government thereon shall be final:

[Provided that where the licensing officer is an officer other than the Director of Horticulture and Fruit Utilization, the appeal shall lie against his order to the Director of Horticulture and Fruit Utilization and the decision of the Director of Horticulture and Fruit Utilization thereon shall be final.]

[Substituted by Notification No. M-49/12(8)-74, dated 6th June, 1974, vide U.P. Cold Storage (Third Amendment) Order, 1974.]

Cold Storage receipts.

(1)

For the agricultural produce stored in a cold storage by each hirer, the licensee shall issue a cold storage receipt in Form 'D' containing particulars relating to the agricultural produce.

(2)

[The licensee shall not have any other terms and conditions entered on the receipt or on any other document signed by the hirer except as otherwise provided by the Order.]

[Inserted by Notification No. A-2707/XII-G, dated June 27, 1972, vide U.P. Cold Storage (First Amendment) Order, 1972.]

Cold storage receipts to be transferable by endorsement and delivery.

- A cold storage receipt shall, unless it is otherwise specified thereon, be transferable by endorsement and delivery and shall entitle any lawful holder thereof to receive the agricultural produce specified in it as if he were the original hirer.

Duplicate cold storage receipt.

- If a cold storage receipt is lost, destroyed, torn or defaced, the licensee shall on application by the hirer and on payment by him of rupees two issue a duplicate cold storage receipt in accordance with the provisions of clause 15.
