S.R.O. 1150. - The following Rules made by the Joint Committee constituted under sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Salary and Allowances of Members of Parliament Act, 1954 (

No. 30 of 1954

), in exercise of the powers conferred on it by sub-section (3) of the said section, which have been approved and confirmed by the Chairman of the Council of States and the Speaker of the House of the People as required by sub-section (4) of that section, are published for general information:-

Preliminary

Short Title.

(1)

These rules may be called the Members of Parliament (Travelling and Daily Allowances) Rules, 1957.

(2)

They shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of June, 1954, provided that any claim already settled before the publication of these rules in the Official Gazette shall not be reopened by virtue of any provision contained in these rules.

2.

Definitions.

- In these rules, unless and context otherwise requires,-

"the Act" means the Salary and Allowances of Members of Parliament Act, 1954 (30 of 1954

); as amended (9 of 1955);

(b)

"Controlling Officer" means an Officer of the Lok Sabha Secretariat empowered by the Secretary of the Lok Sabha or an Officer of Rajya Sabha Secretariat empowered by the Secretary of the Rajya Sabha to countersign the travelling and daily allowances bills of Members of the Lok Sabha or the Rajya Sabha as the case may be;

(c)

"Day" means a period of twenty-four hours beginning at midnight;

(d)

"Form" means a Form appended to these rules;

"Joint Committee" means the Joint Committee constituted under sub-section (1) of section 9;

(f)

"Section" means a section of the Act.

Routes for the Performance of any Journey

3.

(i)

Subject to the other provisions of these rules the railway fare referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Act shall be calculated by the shortest route, i.e., the route by which a Member may most speedily reach his destination. When more routes than one are equally short, the fare shall be calculated by the cheapest route.

(ii)

Where the shortest route is temporarily closed, the extra fare may be allowed by the next quickest route.

(iii)

[Where it is not convenient for a Member to travel by the shortest route, he may travel by any route more convenient to him, and in such a case the railway fare shall be calculated by the route by which he actually travelled:

[Inserted by S.R.O. 341 published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 3, dated the 25th January, 1958.]

Provided that where the difference between the fare by the shortest route and the fare by route by which he actually travelled exceeds sixty rupees, the difference in fare payable to the Members shall be limited to sixty rupees.]

(iv)

[The second class fare referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Act shall be calculated at the rates prescribed for journeys by mail trains irrespective of the train in which the Member actually travels.]

[Inserted by G.S.R. 1287(E), published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 3, Sub-section (i), dated the 24th November, 1959.]

3A.

[Inserted by G.S.R. 339(E), published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 3, Sub-section (i), dated the 2nd July, 1973]

[(1) A Member is entitled to receive travelling allowance in respect of journey performed by air in any airlines.

(1A)

The airfare referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 4 or in clause (b) of sub-section (1), and sub-section (2) of section 5 shall be calculated by the direct route:

Provided that where there are more routes than one, the air fare shall be calculated by the route by which a Member may reach his destination at the earliest.]]

Where the direct route is temporarily closed, or there is no service on a particular day, and the journey is performed by the Member by the next cheapest route, the air fare shall be allowed by that route.

(3)

Where it is not convenient for a Member to travel by the direct route, he may travel by any route more convenient to him and in such a case, he shall be allowed an amount which is equal to-the air fare by the route by which he had actually travelled, or

(i)

(ii)

the air fare by the direct route plus a sum of rupees [two hundred and fifty]

[Substituted by G.S.R. 1096(E), published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 3, Sub-section (i), dated 25th November, 1988 effective from 1-4-1988.]

, whichever is less:

[Provided that a Member of Parliament shall be entitled to travel by any other route to avoid inconvenience to reach his destination on the same day when connected flights are not available by the shortest route, subject to the permission of the Speaker, Lok Sabha or Chairman, Rajya Sabha as the case may be.]

[Inserted by G.S.R. 544(E), published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 3, Sub-section (i), dated 31st August, 1988.]

Where a Member travels by circuitous air-cum-rail route, he shall be allowed travelling allowance under section 4 for the journey actually performed by air-cum-rail or the travelling allowance by the air by the direct route, whichever is less:

Provided that where the air portion of the journey performed is less than half the total distance by the direct route, the travelling allowance by air shall be allowed for the distance actually travelled by air and for the remainder of the journey, travelling allowance by rail shall be allowed by working out the total rail mileage by the direct route from the starting point to the destination and reducing therefrom the rail mileage from the starting point upto the place a Member travelled by air.

[(a) Where the journey by air is performed by -

(i)

a member under section 4, section 5 or section 6C;

(ii)

the spouse of the member under section 6B; or

(iii)

an attendant of the member under section 6D, the member shall submit self attested travelling allowance claim alongwith air journey tickets and boarding passes, online.

(b)

Submission of online boarding passes shall be allowed both for official journeys as well as for personal air journeys of members.

(c)

If a member misplaces boarding passes, etc., a self-declaration certificate may be submitted alongwith travelling allowance bills for having performed the journey.

(d)

If online submission is not feasible, member may submit travelling allowance bills alongwith all requisite documents in physical form.

(e)

All documents submitted online or in physical form shall be verified from the concerned airlines.]

Manner in which fractions of a day should be dealt with for the purpose of determining the daily allowance admissible for the day

Daily allowance shall be admissible to a Member for each day of residence on duty irrespective of the time of arrival or departure,

[4A. Every Member shall be entitled to receive road mileage allowance at the rate of [sixteen rupees per kilometre] for the journey or any part thereof performed by road for the purpose of sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Act:

[Substituted by G.S.R. 575(E), published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 3, Sub-section (i), dated 25th August, 1993.]

Provided that in respect of journey from the usual place of residence in Delhi to the Delhi airport and vice-versa the minimum amount shall be Rs. 320]

[Substituted by Notification No. G.S.R 351(E), dated 12.5.2022 (w.e.f. 4.4.1957).]

Admissibility of travelling allowance where a member is provided with free transit for the whole or any part of a journey

5.

No travelling allowance under section 4 shall be claimed by a Member in respect of any Journey or part thereof performed by him in a conveyance provided at the expense of the Government of India or a State Government or a local fund but he shall be entitled to draw an allowance at the rate of Rs. 5.25 (Rupees Five and Paise twenty-five) only per diem, where the duration of such journey lasts for not less than six hours on any day:

Provided that the provisions of this rule shall not apply to a journey performed on any railway.

Note - The amount of Rs. 5.25 is granted to the Member to cover his incidental expenses during such journeys or parts thereof, and is in lieu of the extra air or steamer fares or road mileage when he performs the journey by a conveyance supplied without charge. This allowance is not an alternative to the daily allowance of [two thousand rupees] per diem which is allowed to him for each day of residence on duty.

[Substituted by G.S.R. 969(E), published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 3, Sub-section (i), dated 13th December, 2010 effective from 1-10-2010.]

Admissibility of travelling allowance where a place from which a member commences his journey or to which he returns is not his usual place of residence

When a Member performs a journey for the purpose of attending a Session of a House of Parliament or a meeting of a Committee or for the purpose of attending to any other business connected with his duties as a Member from a place, other than his usual place of residence or returns to such a place he may draw travelling allowance for the actual journey performed or the journey from or to his usual place of residence whichever is less.

[6A. Where during a Session of a House of Parliament or a sitting of a Committee a Member performs a journey from the place where such Session or sitting is held to any other place for the purpose of attending to any business connected with his duties as a Member, he shall be entitled to receive-travelling allowance in respect of such journey to such other place and for the return journey, at the rates specified in section 4, and daily allowance for each day during any period of residence on duty at the other place at the rate specified in section 3].

(b)
