Instructions To Masters

(i)

A record of every birth of a child or death of a person ON BOARD ship is required to be made by the Master of every Indian ship (excepting a Home-Trade ship of less than 200 tons gross) in the official log book and a return thereof forwarded to the Director General of Shipping.

(ii)

Failure to send a return to the Director General of Shipping, Bombay, renders the Master liable to fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for each offence. [Section 214(2) and 436 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958].

Note :- When the death of a person at sea is assumed by the Master to have taken place because the person in question is reported to be missing, or where a person is killed or drowned as a result of falling or jumping overboard, falling from a rope or ladder attached to the ship, or from the ship's gangway, the death should be regarded as having taken place, ON BOARD.
