Veterinary Council of India (Registration) Regulations, 1992

Published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 3(i), dated 24th February, 1992

2039.

G.S.R. 119(E), dated 24th February, 1992 - In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 66 of the Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984 (52 of 1984), the Veterinary Council of India, with the previous approval of the Central Government, hereby makes the following regulations, namely:-

1.

Short title and commencement

(1)

These regulations may be called the Veterinary Council of India (Registration) Regulations, 1992.

(2)

They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Gazette of India.

2.

Definition

(1)

In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,-

(a)

'Act' means the Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984(52 of 1984).

(b)

'Form' means a form appended to these regulations;

(c)

'Recognised Veterinary College' means a Veterinary College affiliated to a University and recognised by Veterinary Council of India.

(2)

Words and expressions used in these regulations and not separately defined above shall have the same meaning as in the Act.

3.

Register

- The Register shall be maintained in such form specified in the Appendix annexed to these regulations.

4.

Direct Registration in the Register.

(1)

Any registered practitioner desirous of having his/her name entered in the Register under Section 24 of the Act, may apply to the Secretary in Form 'A'. The Secretary shall before entering such practitioner's name in the Register, verify the antecedents of such practitioner and satisfy himself that the person concerned possesses a recognised veterinary qualification;

(2)

Every application in Form 'A' shall be accompanied by:-

(a)

the documents specified in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of second para of Form 'A'.

(b)

a fee of Rs. 15 (Rupees fifteen only) by a crossed postal order or bank draft in the name of Veterinary Council of India, New Delhi.

(c)

a recent passport size photograph of the applicant duly attested by a Gazetted Officer or the Principal of a recognised Veterinary College or a Member of the Legislative Assembly of the State within whose jurisdiction the applicant resides or a Member of Parliament.

5.

Registration of Additional Qualification.

(1)

Any registered practitioner obtaining any degree or diploma in veterinary science in addition to his/her recognised veterinary qualification, may apply to the Secretary on an application as given in form 'B' to have his/her additional qualification entered in such register in addition to any entry previously made.

(2)

Every application in Form 'B' shall be accompanied by:-

(a)

Original Certificate of additional degree/diploma.

(b)

Two attested copies thereof attested by any authority as specified in Clause (d) of sub-regulation (2), of Regulation 4.

(c) a fee of Rs. 10 by crossed Postal Order or bank draft in the Veterinary Council of India, New Delhi.

6.

Alteration of names in the Register.

(1)

No entry in respect of alteration of the name of registered practitioner shall be made in the register unless the application is accompanied by:-

(a)

a notification in the Official Gazette relating to such alteration of name; or an affidavit regarding such alteration of name affirmed and authenticated before a Judicial Magistrate of the First Class or Metropolitan Magistrate in original, alongwith two attested copies thereof.

(b)

(2)

The Secretary shall return the original documents as soon as the details are verified.

When the name of any registered practitioner is altered in the above circumstances, the certificate of Registration in Form 'C' shall stand amended accordingly and a fresh certificate with amended details issued to him/her by the Secretary under his seal and hand.

7.

Notification about change of place or residence.

- It shall be the duty of every Registered practitioner who changes his/her address of residence or practice to intimate his/her new address of residence or practice to Veterinary Council of India and the State Veterinary Council concerned within 90 days of such change.

Certificate of Registration.

- The certificate of registration in the Indian Veterinary practitioners' register shall be given in Form 'C'.

9.

Renewal, revision and publication of register

(1)

After every five years from the first publication of the register in the Official Gazette, the Secretary shall cause a general notice in Form 'D' to be published in the leading newspapers having wide circulation in the country and on such dates as the Secretary may, with the approval of the President of the Veterinary Council of India, decide, call upon all registered practitioners to apply to the Secretary without payment of any fee and within the specified period, for continuation of their names in the Register.

(2)

The Secretary by general notice under sub-clause (1) may send individual notices in Form 'B' under certificate of posting enclosing Form 'F' to every registered practitioner at his/her address as entered in the register calling upon him/her to return the application in Form 'F' to the Secretary duly filled in for the continuance of his/her name in the register within the period mentioned in such individual notice.

(3)

On the expiry of the period specified in the individual notice, the Secretary may delete from the register the names of such of the registered practitioners from whom no duly completed Form 'F' has been received within the time specified.

(4)

The Secretary shall publish such of the names which have been removed from the register in the Official Gazette and copies thereof shall be displayed on the Notice Board of the Office of Veterinary Council of India for a period of 90 days from the date of such removal.

(5)

The Secretary shall send by registered post an intimation of removal of the name from the register to each of the registered practitioners whose names has been removed. On such removal of his/her name from the register, the certificate of registration of the registered practitioner concerned shall be deemed to have been cancelled.

Provided that a registered practitioner whose name had been removed from the register may, at any time thereafter, send an application in Form 'F' to the Secretary alongwith a fee of Rs. 15/- by crossed Postal Order or Bank Draft in the name of Veterinary Council of India, New Delhi, and on the receipt of which the Secretary shall restore his/her name in the register and such restoration of name in the register shall be deemed to have the effect of restoring the registered practitioner's name in the certificate of registration.

Issue of Duplicate Certificate.

- Any registered practitioner, whose certificate of registration has been lost or destroyed, may on an application made to the Secretary in Form 'G' apply for issuance of duplicate certificate on payment of a fee of Rs. 10 by Crossed Postal Order or Bank Draft in the name of Veterinary Council of India, New Delhi, and the Secretary after satisfying himself may issue a duplicate certificate.

11.

Appeal

(1)

Any-registered practitioner aggrieved by an order under sub-section (1) of Section 49 of the Act, may within sixty days from the communication to him/her of such order, appeal to the Council in Form 'H' accompanied by a fee of Rs. 15 (Rupees fifteen only) by Crossed Postal Order or Bank Draft in the name of Veterinary Council of India, New Delhi, for restoration of his/her name in the State Veterinary Register.

A person aggrieved by the decision of the Council under sub section (4) of section 49 of the Act, may within sixty days from the communication to him/her of such decision, appeal to the Central Government in Form 'I' for restoration of his/her name in the State Veterinary Register.

(b)

Every appeal in Form 'I' shall be accompanied by a fee of Rs.15 by Crossed Postal Order or a Bank Draft in the name of Secretary, Department of Animal Husbandry and Dairying, Krishi Bhavan, New Delhi.

12.

In any of the conditions specified in clauses 5,9,10 or 11, whereby a registration certificate is to be prepared and despatched, the registered practitioner shall pay service charges as specified by the Executive Committee from time to time.
