II. Promotion

16.

Field of selection for promotion.

(1)

Where promotion is to made to a non-selection post, the employees, who are senior most in the seniority list of the cadre from which promotions are made to a selection post, the field of selection shall not be less than three times and shall not be more than five times the number of vacancies subject to employees which necessary qualifications and experience being available. The Department Promotion Committee may at its discretion, for reasons to be recorded in writing, alter these limits to suit exceptional circumstances.

(2)

The following principles and procedures shall normally be observed for making departmental promotions.

(a)

No employee shall be promoted to a higher post, unless he posses the necessary qualifications for the higher post.

17.

Departmental promotion committee.

(1)

There shall be a Departmental Promotion Committee as provided in the schedule for each category of posts in the Authority.

(2)

Officers on the DPC will be atleast one scale above the post for which the promotion is to be made but not below the level of Assistant Director Accounts Officer.

(3)

The DPC should be convened at regular annual intervals to draw panels which could be utilised for making promotion against the vacancies occurring during the course of a year. The requirement of convening annual meetings of the DPC should be dispensed with only after a certificate has been issued by the appointing authority that there are no vacancies to be filled promotion or no officers are due for confirmation during the year in question.

(4)

Efficiency Bar. - Class of employees for crossing the efficiency bar will be considered by appropriate DPC on the basis of up-to-date record of performance in written test/and/or trade test prescribed by Chairman if any.

5. Validity of the proceedings of DPCs. - The proceedings of the Departmental Promotion Committee shall be legally valid and can be operated upon notwithstanding the absence of any of its member other than the chairman, provided that the member was duly invited but he absented himself for one reason or the other and there was no deliberate attempt to exclude him from the deliberation of the DPC and provide further that majority of the members constituting the DPC are present in the Meeting.

(6)

Implementation of the recommendation of the DPC. - The recommendations of the Departmental Promotion Committee are advisory in nature and should be duly approved by the appointing authority before being implemented. A clearance from the Vigilance Section of the Office/ Department should also be obtained before making actual promotion or confirmation of officer approved by DPC to ensure that no disciplinary proceedings are pending against the officer concerned.

(7)

Refusal of promotion. - When an employee does not want to accept a promotion which is offered to him he may make written request that he may not be promoted and the request will be considered by the appointing authority, taking relevant aspects into consideration. If the reason adduced for refusal of promotion are acceptable to the appointing authority, the next person in the select list may be promoted. However, since it may not be administratively possible or desirable to offer appointment to the persons who initially refused promotion, on every occasion on which a vacancy arises during the period of validity of the panel, no fresh of appointment on promotion shall be made in such cases for a period of one year from the date of refusal of first promotion or till the next vacancy arises, whichever is later. On the eventual promotion to the higher grade such government servant will lose seniority vis-a-vis his erstwhile juniors promoted to the higher grade earlier irrespective of the fact whether the posts in question are filled by selection or otherwise. The above mentioned policy will not apply where ad-hoc promotion against short-term vacancies are refused.

18.

Deputation transfer of I.W.A.I. Employers to outside posts.

- Any employee may be permitted to serve on deputation or on foreign service under the control of the Central or a State Government, a local Authority, a Statutory undertaking or a Government Company, as defined in the companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956) or an institution receiving grant from Government on such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the organisations from time to time. The period of deputation shall not exceed 5 years. An employee of IWAI who has been selected for a post in the some other organisations and has been released for appointment on permanent absorption basis after his resignation has been accepted by the Authority will not be allowed to retain any lien in this Authority.

Transfer on deputation.

- The term 'deputation' will cover only appointments made by transfer on a temporary basis from other departments of the Central/State Governments/ Statutory or Autonomous Bodies/Public Sector Undertakings. An employee on deputation may elect to draw either the pay in the scale of pay of the deputation post or his basic pay in the parent cadre plus personal pay, if any, plus deputation (duty) allowance. In no case will the pay so fixed be less than the minimum of the scale of the ex-cadre post. The deputation allowance admissible shall be at the following rates.

(a)

5 per cent of the employee's basic pay subject to a maximum of Rs. 250 p.m. when the transfer is within the same station.

(b)

10 per cent of the employee's basic pay subject to a maximum of Rs. 500 p.m. in all other cases.

Provided that the basic pay plus the deputation (duty) allowance shall at no time exceed Rs. 7,300 p.m.

The period of deputation shall be subject to a maximum of 3 years in all cases except for those posts where a longer period of measure is prescribed in the Recruitment Rules. The maximum period of deputation shall not exceed 5 years.
